

2023. FINANCIAL MARKET CONFERENCE

ROAD TO INVESTMENTS

powered by Hipotekarna banka

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Gojko Maksimovic, CFA
Director of Financial Markets Division,
Hipotekarna banka

He graduated in 2007 at the Faculty of Economics, University of Montenegro. He completed Postgraduate studies in June 2010 at the Faculty of Economics, University of Montenegro, on the department - Financial Markets and Investment Analysis. He defended his master thesis - "Analysis of the process of securitization in the context of the current financial crisis". He started working in November 2007 as an Intern and later as an Advisor in the Sector for Listing and Surveillance of the New Securities Exchange of Montenegro JSC Podgorica. When the Montenegrin Stock Exchanges merged in January 2010, he was appointed as a Deputy Manager on a newly established Montenegro Stock Exchange JSC Podgorica, until April, 2010, when he was appointed as CEO of the Montenegro Stock Exchange JSC Podgorica, one and only stock exchange operating in Montenegro.

On January 2019, Gojko Maksimovic joined Hipotekarna banka AD Podgorica, where he starts his duty as Director for financial markets. He is in charge of: Asset/liability management (ALM), about 250 Million of € Assets under management (AUM) mainly fix income instruments; Treasury about 200 Million of € AUM; Relationship with other banks and financial institutions (EBRD, EIB) and Investment services for clients (trading, custody and advisory).

In August 2016, he passed the CFA exam (Chartered Financial Analyst), Level III, exam organized by the CFA Institute of the USA. This gave him the right to receive the CFA diploma and on August 2016, he become a member of the CFA Society Austria. Now he is member of CFA Society Serbia.

